Pronombres de sujeto y objeto

Objeto: cosas en singular y plural

Cuando una cosa recibe la acción, usamos it: I wash it. Cuando la reciben varias cosas, usamos them: I wash them. También van después de preposiciones: sit on it. Water, bread, music y homework llevan it en estas frases. Una sola llave se sustituye por it; varias llaves, por them. No usamos they en el lugar de them.

Ejemplo resuelto

The cups are dirty. Please wash ____. → The cups are dirty. Please wash them.

Las tazas están sucias. Lávalas, por favor. Varias cosas reciben la acción: them.
