Concordancia entre sujeto y verbo

El nombre del sujeto: singular o plural

El nombre del sujeto y el verbo deben encajar. En presente afirmativo, un nombre singular lleva verbo con -s o -es: the child reads. Un nombre plural lleva la forma básica: the children read. Has va con un nombre singular; have, con uno plural. Para formar el plural, la mayoría de los nombres añade -s. Bus añade -es; baby cambia a babies. Recuerda child → children, woman → women, man → men y mouse → mice.
