It impersonal

It was / It wasn't: tiempo atmosférico pasado

Para hablar del tiempo que hacía, usamos It was: It was cold yesterday, ayer hacía frío. Para negar, usamos It wasn't: It wasn't raining, no estaba lloviendo. Wasn't es la forma corta de was not. Todas estas frases hablan del pasado. El contexto indica si la descripción es verdadera o falsa; llevar un abrigo, por sí solo, no demuestra que hiciera frío.
