It impersonal

It is / It was: presente y pasado

Con it usamos is para describir el presente y was para describir el pasado. It is cold now: hace frío ahora. It was cold yesterday: ayer hacía frío. Lo mismo ocurre con la hora, el día y la fecha: It is Monday today; It was Monday yesterday. Now, right now y at this moment señalan el presente. Yesterday y last week señalan el pasado. Todas las frases de esta práctica son afirmativas.
