Presente simple: tercera persona

Formas especiales: has, does y goes

Con I, you, we, they y sujetos plurales usamos have, do y go. Con he, she, it o un sujeto como my sister usamos has, does y goes. Have cambia a has; do y go añaden es. Have aparece al hablar de lo que tenemos o de rutinas como have lunch. Do puede ser la acción de hacer: do homework. Go sirve para desplazamientos y actividades como go swimming. En las dos frases se usa el mismo verbo principal.
