Presente simple o presente continuo

Negativas: rutina o acción de ahora

Para negar una rutina usamos don't o doesn't y el verbo básico: I don't drive; she doesn't drive. I, you, we, they y plurales llevan don't; he, she, it y nombres singulares, doesn't. Para negar una acción de ahora usamos am not con I, isn't con he, she, it y singulares, y aren't con you y plurales. Después va -ing: I am not driving now. El contexto indica que la acción no ocurre. En esta ficha I ya está escrito: escribe am not después de I; para los demás casos usa la contracción del auxiliar con not.

Ejemplo resuelto
