Verbos de estado y de acción

Estado o acción en curso: formas afirmativas

Primero mira el significado. Un estado cuenta lo que sabemos, queremos o tenemos: I know the answer. Una acción cuenta lo que estamos haciendo: I am reading now. En esta ficha escribe los estados en presente simple y las acciones en curso en continuo. En simple, he, she, it y nombres singulares añaden -s o -es; los demás usan el verbo básico. En continuo usamos am con I, is con singulares y are con you y plurales; después va -ing. Un verbo de acción también puede contar rutinas en simple. Usa el verbo principal de la primera frase y escribe las formas completas.
