Pasados regulares: escritura y sonidos

Duplicar la consonante final

En estos verbos cortos, una sola vocal escrita va entre dos consonantes: stop, plan, hop. Duplicamos la consonante final antes de añadir ed: stopped, planned, hopped. No lo hacemos con cualquier verbo: help → helped tiene dos consonantes al final; play → played termina en y. No duplicamos w, x ni y. En verbos más largos también importa dónde está el golpe fuerte de voz. Aquí practicamos solo verbos de una sílaba como stop.
