Pasados regulares: escritura y sonidos

Pasados con una sílaba más: /ɪd/

Si el verbo básico termina en sonido /t/ o /d/, ed añade una sílaba: want → wanted, need → needed. Want tiene una sílaba; wanted tiene dos. Visit tiene dos; visited tiene tres. Esa terminación se representa /ɪd/ y también puede sonar /əd/. Para escribir, añadimos ed; si el verbo acaba en e, solo d: invite → invited. Usa el verbo principal de la primera frase.
