Present perfect: ever y never

El participio después de ever

Usa el verbo principal de la primera frase. Después de ever va su participio. Los regulares suelen añadir ed: cook → cooked; bake → baked. Irregulares: see → seen, write → written, eat → eaten, take → taken, ride → ridden, drink → drunk, sing → sung, swim → swum, speak → spoken, grow → grown, drive → driven, draw → drawn, wear → worn, give → given. Otros tienen el mismo participio que pasado: made, bought, found, built, caught, taught, sent, met, held, heard, lost, fed, kept, won. Read se escribe igual, pero su participio suena como red.
