Review of past tenses

Pasado simple o participio después de had

Usa el verbo de la primera frase. Si la segunda cuenta un hecho de un momento terminado y no lleva auxiliar, escribe past simple: Yesterday I wrote. Si ya lleva had, escribe el participio: I had written. Had coloca la acción antes de otro momento pasado. A veces pasado y participio coinciden: cooked, cooked; otras veces cambian: took, taken. Aquí usamos learned, traveled y practiced.
